I went on-air with JV and Elvis over at New York's 92.3 Free FM on Thursday.Â They wanted to know all about my Mantool, my experience almost gettin' a deer with my knife, and how I'm was eating.Â (They helped out on that last bit by spotting me $20.00, which just about covered the poorly-advised taxi I took to try to make it to the show on time.Â I was late.)

Check it out on their blog here.
